

Raul Rodriguez has been a manager for the department since 2016 and manager of the Palmdale Animal Care Center since 2018. Passionate about animals, Raul started his career with the Department of Animal Care and Control in 1998 as an Animal Shelter Aide. Raul studied Marketing and Advertising at Universidad Mariano Galvez de Guatemala. In 2018, Raul successfully completed the Executive Leadership Development Program at USC. He is certified as a Hearing Officer by the Department of Animal Care and Control and is a member of the Los Angeles County Management Council.

Raul moved to the Antelope Valley from Los Angeles in 1996. In his free time, Raul loves to spend time with his family and his three dogs, Newton, Bell and Pebbles. Grateful for an amazing team at DACC, Raul makes sure the animals in his care are placed in forever homes and promotes responsible ownership in his community.
