

Shannon Asquith has been a Care Center Manager for the County of Los Angeles Department of Animal Care and Control since 2017. Prior to coming onboard with the County, Shannon was a professional responder for the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (ASPCA) for six years, board president for the Sacramento Area Animal Coalition (SAAC) for five years, and volunteer coordinator for the Front Street Shelter in Sacramento for over three years.

Shannon holds an M.A. in Philanthropy and Development, an M.A. in Business Administration and a B.S. in Business Administration.

Shannon is a member of the Society of Animal Welfare Administrators.

Shannon is dedicated to empowering staff and volunteers to improve the lives of animals as well as building relationships with outside organizations that partner to help pets at the Care Center.

Shannon adopted two kittens from the Downey Care Center last year; Peanut, a gray and white male and Nugget, a gray tabby and white. She also enjoys spending weekends on the Central Coast of California.
