

Betsey Webster has been in public service since 1993, and has participated in senior management for Animal Care Agencies since 2006. As Chief Deputy for the County of Los Angeles Department of Animal Care and Control, Betsey Webster acts as assistant head of the Department. She holds an M.A. in Management from the University of Redlands and a B.S. in Health Administration from the University of Phoenix where she graduated with honors. She has served on the board of directors of the California Animal Control Association and is a Fellow in the University of Redlands Whitehead Leadership Society. She is a graduate of the County of Los Angeles/USC Executive Leadership Program. Betsey values engagement, kindness, resilience and courage. She is committed to enabling the DACC team to create a safer world for people and animals. Her pets include two adopted pugs.