

Dr. Rommel Lanzas has been a veterinarian for the County of Los Angeles Department of Animal Care and Control since May 2017. Dr. Lanzas has a D.V.M. from the University of the Philippines and began with the department in 2008 as a Registered Veterinary Technician and left to obtain his California Veterinary Medical License and hone his skills as a vet. He is a member of the CVMA (California Veterinary Medical Association) and the SCVMA (Southern California Veterinary Medical Association).

Dr. Lanzas is dedicated to public service and has a 10-year-old Birman cat, Jeffrey, adopted from the Carson-Gardena shelter. Dr. Lanzas and his wife Rowena are proud “marching band parents” to their son Kirby currently who is a student at UC Riverside. Dr. Lanzas plays tennis regularly and enjoys having dinner out with his family.
