

Lisa Eldridge is the Public Safety Division Manager for the County of Los Angeles Department of Animal Care and Control. The Public Safety Division includes Critical Case Processing, the Major Cases Unit and Emergency Response. Lisa has been with the department since 1995, starting out as an Animal Control Officer at the Castaic Animal Care Center. In 2015 Lisa was assigned the Animal Control Manager position at the Carson-Gardena Animal Care Center and was transferred to the new Palmdale Animal Care Center in April 2016. Lisa is also the Equine Response Team leader and coordinator who oversees the volunteer response to fires, floods and other incidents throughout the County of Los Angeles.

Lisa is dedicated to assisting the community with resources, education on preparedness and protecting animals. In her spare time, she enjoys paddle boarding and sailing.
