

Justin Guzman has been an Animal Control Manager with the County of Los Angeles Department of Animal Care and Control since March 2014. Justin began his tenure with the department as a Sergeant in 2014, as kennel operations supervisor for the Carson/Gardena Animal Care Center. Justin promoted through the ranks to his actual position and has worked in different animal care centers, while completing various assignments during his time with the department.

Prior to DACC, Justin worked in the law enforcement field with the South Gate Police Department as police officer and with Southeast Area Animal Care and Control (SEAACA) as an Animal Control Officer.

Justin has always enjoyed interacting with coworkers, volunteers, and members of the public. He is dedicated to continuously learning and assisting the community.

Justin spends his free time focusing on his family and is an avid baseball fan. His family has two dogs and a cat; “Lucy” a miniature schnauzer, “Faline” a Doberman Pinscher, and “Figaro” a domestic shorthair.
