

Juan Carlos Maceda is the Manager of the Agoura Animal Care Center. During his tenure with the County of Los Angeles Department of Animal Care and Control, which he began in 2005, he joined as an Animal Shelter Aid, and has since risen through the ranks, demonstrating his dedication and expertise in animal welfare.

Throughout his career, Juan has held various roles and served in numerous locations within the department, gaining a comprehensive understanding of its operations and challenges. His passion for animal protection and commitment to serving the community are evident in his work. Juan consistently strives to ensure the well-being of animals and providing exceptional service to the public is a priority. If you see him, he will always have a smile on his face and a willingness to help.

Beyond his professional accomplishments, Juan is a devoted family man, cherishing his role as a husband and father of two lovely children. He also has a Goldendoodle named Daisy that everyone loves. He finds joy in outdoor activities and enjoys embarking on road trips with his family, exploring different Capitol buildings across the country. Additionally, he is a Wildland Firefighter academy graduate, having completed the rigorous training program at Rio Hondo Community College.

Juan's unwavering love for his family and his willingness to prioritize the needs of others exemplify his exceptional character. He is a respected and beloved member of the Agoura Animal Care Center team, where he serves as the fifth manager since its establishment in 1976. His leadership, expertise, and compassionate approach significantly contributed to the care center's success in providing exceptional care for animals and supporting for the community.
